

MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital is committed to respecting and protecting the rights of patients. We will make every effort to ensure patient satisfaction in all aspects of care and a core value is treating patients in a manner that delivers care in the patient's best interests while working to preserve patients' dignity, autonomy, self-esteem, civil rights, and involvement in their own care. As a MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital patient, you have certain rights and responsibilities. Please take a moment to read through these below.

MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital Patient Rights and Responsibilities +

As a patient at this MedStar Health facility, you have the right:

- To receive considerate, respectful, and compassionate care in a safe setting, free from all forms of abuse, including verbal, mental, physical, and sexual abuse, harassment, neglect, retaliation, humiliation or exploitation from staff, students, volunteers, other patients, visitors and family members.
- To be treated without discrimination or regard to race, color, national origin, ethnicity, age, religion, physical or mental disability, pregnancy, sex, sexual orientation, sexual stereotyping, marital status, gender, gender identity or expression, language, ability to pay, or socioeconomic status. To be treated consistent with your personal values, beliefs, wishes, and/or gender identity in all activities associated with the treatment you receive.
- To be provided stabilizing treatment for emergency medical conditions.
- To have access to programs and activities provided through electronic and information technology and physical access to new or altered areas of this facility.
- To be screened, assessed, and treated for pain.
- To have a family member/representative and your doctor notified promptly of your admission to the hospital if contact information is available.
- To participate in your plan of care. To discuss information about your medical diagnosis, condition or illness, prognosis, test results, treatment choices, and possible outcomes of care and unanticipated outcomes of care with a qualified provider, in a language and manner that you understand.
- To be told the names and jobs of the health care team members involved in your care if staff safety is not a concern.
- To give informed consent before any nonemergency care is provided, including the benefits and risks of the care, alternatives to the care, and the benefits and risks of the alternatives to the care.
- To consent, request, or refuse any treatment, as permitted by law, including to consent or refuse to take part in research affecting your care. If you refuse any treatment, or choose not to participate in a research study, you will continue to receive the most appropriate care the hospital may otherwise provide.
- To be provided an appropriate means of communication through auxiliary aids and services to ensure your understanding of your care when you do not speak the predominant language of the community or are visually or hearing impaired, without charge.
- To be provided a list of protective and advocacy services when needed.
- To have an Advance Directive, such as a Living Will or the appointment of a healthcare agent to speak on your behalf, to communicate your wishes regarding treatment, and to expect that your Advance Directive will be followed. To make or change your Advanced Directive while in the hospital. To not be discriminated against if you choose not to have an Advance Directive.
- To designate a person to make healthcare decisions for you, if you are unable to do so.
- To have visitors and a support person that you designate, including, but not limited to, a spouse, domestic partner (including a same sex spouse), other family member(s) or friends for emotional support, without regard to race, color, national origin, age, religion, physical or mental disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or economic status during the course of your hospital stay, per hospital visitation policy, unless the visitor's presence infringes on others' rights or safety or is medically or therapeutically contraindicated, or you change your mind on who may visit.
- To designate someone to help with your care at home when you are admitted to the hospital.

- To remain free from restraints and seclusion unless medically or behaviorally necessary to ensure a safe environment of care for you and others and to have care givers who are appropriately trained regarding the use of restraints or seclusion.
- To consent or refuse to allow pictures of you for purposes other than your care.
- To be provided privacy and confidentiality with respect to your personal identity and dignity in care discussions and treatment.
- To have your health information treated confidentially, so that only individuals involved in your care, monitoring your quality of care, or otherwise allowed by law will be allowed to access your medical record.
- To access, request to amend or receive an accounting of disclosures of your medical record, as allowed by law and in accordance with Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA). To receive a Notice of Privacy Practices explaining these rights.
- To receive a written statement of those services that may be provided only when medically necessary, and of charges for services not covered by Medicare or Medicaid.
- To be made aware that you may be eligible for this MedStar Health facility's financial assistance program that provides certain types of care, free of charge or at a reduced fee.
- To appeal a decision if you disagree that you are not eligible for the financial assistance program.
- To request an estimate of hospital charges before care is provided and as long as patient care is not impeded and receive a written explanation of your bill, regardless of source of payment.
- To know about and access hospital resources such as social work, pastoral care, other spiritual services, or the Ethics Committee that can help resolve questions and concerns about your hospital stay and care.
- To have access at any time to a telephone where you may speak without being monitored by the hospital.
- To file a grievance or a complaint with your healthcare insurance or payer.
- To file a grievance or a complaint about the MedStar National Rehabilitation Hospital without the fear of retaliation, you may contact Patient Relations staff by calling the action line at 202-877-1411.
